Quarantine Requirements for the Importation of Animal Vaccines

(TRANSLATION)

(In case of any divergence in the translation, Chinese text shall prevail.)

Promulgated by Council of Agriculture on June 2, 2006 and Implemented on July 1, 2006

Article 1

The “animal vaccine” as stated in this requirements is referred to the preparations of which the ingredients are derived from micro-organisms. The products include the followings:

1. Products belong to the following Code of The Standard Classification of Commodities of the Republic of China (C.C.C.Code):
 - (1) 3002.30.10.00-4 “Vaccines against foot and mouth disease”
 - (2) 3002.30.90.00-7 “Other vaccines for veterinary medicine”
2. Other products designated by the national competent authority.

Article 2

For importation of animal vaccine, the importer shall have the License for Importation of Veterinary Drugs or permit for importation approved by the national competent authority. The imported animal vaccine shall be the same as described in the License for Importation of Veterinary Drugs or the permit for importation approved by the national competent authority.

Article 3

To import animal vaccine, the importer shall apply for quarantine inspection to animal quarantine authority on arrival and the consignment shall be accompanied with an original certificate issued by the quarantine authority of the exporting country and a copy of the License for Importation of Veterinary Drugs or the permit for importation approved by the national competent authority. The certificate shall state the following in English, Chinese or both Chinese and English:

1. Name and address of the manufacturing plant.
2. Name, amount of package and lot number of the products.
3. If the animal vaccine is imported from a third country, then re-exported to this country, the country name of production shall be stated.

The content and form of the certificate issued by the quarantine authority of the exporting country shall be agreed by the animal quarantine authority before the first consignment is to be imported.
